

Free services offered throughout Oregon

Sequential Intercept Model Mapping (SIM)

- Offering both adult and youth SIM mapping workshops
- Brings local expertise together
- Identifies how behavioral health, substance use, and criminal justice intersect
- Identifies opportunities and resources for diverting to treatment over corrections
- Identifies gaps in services

Civil Commitment Mapping

- Development of how people flow through the civil commitment process
- Identifies gaps, processes, and opportunities at each decision point
- Create action plans to support overcoming barriers in the system

Crisis Intervention Team (CIT)

- Promotes best outcomes for people experiencing crisis situations
- Facilitates access to treatment over criminal justice system
- Telecom CIT and Corrections CIT opportunities
- Advanced De-escalation and Escalation Prevention Training (ADEPT)

Trainings & Technical Assistance

- Law Enforcement 101
- Mental Health First Aid
- Trauma Informed Care
- Strategic Planning
- Jail Diversion Planning

The Oregon Center on Behavioral Health & Justice Integration (OCBHJI) helps jurisdictions across Oregon implement and improve efforts in engaging and treating individuals who, primarily due to symptoms of behavioral health conditions, neurocognitive conditions, and/or I/DDs, who are at risk of becoming incarcerated or are currently in the system, while collaborating with agencies to support public safety. Learn more about us by checking out our website!

Contact Information

Michelle Brandsma

Director of OCBHJI
mbrandsma@gobhi.org

Ridg Medford

Behavioral Health & Justice Specialist
rmedford@gobhi.org

Megan Mecouch

Behavioral Health & Justice Specialist
mmecouch@gobhi.org

Madi Clifford

Behavioral Health & Justice Specialist
mclifford@gobhi.org

Greater Oregon Behavioral Health, Inc. (GOBHI)

3729 Klindt Dr., The Dalles, OR 97058 | 800-493-0040 | 541-298-2101
ocbhji@gobhi.org | ocbhji.org