

Detailed agenda, including presenter information, available on the conference registration site.

Day 1: Tuesday, May 19

7:00 - 8:00am	Check-In
8:00 - 8:30am	Opening Remarks Tony Lockhart
8:30 - 10:00am	Keynote Ray Roberts
10:00 - 10:15am	Break
Session 1 10:15 - 11:45am	Extreme Risk Protection Orders & Co-Response	Teen Crisis Response - "Don't treat me like a kid! But also, don't treat me like an adult! It's all so confusing!"	Understanding and De-Escalating Pathological Demand Avoidance within the Neurodiverse Population	Suicide Intervention: From Risk to Resilience	First Responder false guilt and shame
11:45am - 1:00pm	Lunch
Session 2 1:00 - 2:30pm	Professionals at Play	Empathy at the Edge	Minimizing the bullying crisis on our own front lines	Spokane Crisis Continuum of Care	Handling Crisis In Rural Frontier communities
2:30 - 3:00pm	Break
Session 3 3:00 - 4:30pm	From Lived Experience to Lasting Change	From Compliance to Connection: A Neurobehavioral Lens for Crisis De-escalation	Bridging the Response	The Dividing Line: Considerations for MHPs working in Co-Response - an Internal vs External Resource	Maintaining our Mental Health When a Crisis Situation has a Negative Outcome
6:00 - 7:30pm	Banquet/Awards

Day 2: Wednesday, May 20

8:00 - 8:15 am	Introduction
8:15 - 9:45 am	Keynote Bart Stevens & Steve Einhaus
9:45 - 10:00 am	Break
Session 4 10:00 - 11:30 am	The Benefits of Peer Support Co-Responders to Law Enforcement Operations	Best Practices in Restoring Safety, Dignity, and Hope	Staying in the Fight In and Out of Work	Law Enforcement Chaplains & Critical Incident Training	Beyond PowerPoints: Interactive and Memorable Ways to Promote the Mission and Objectives of CIT
11:30am - 1:00 pm	Lunch
Session 5 1:00 - 2:30 pm	Compare and Contrast: Co-Response MHPs and MHPs working on a Crisis Negotiation Team	Resilience	Responding to a Jumper: Strategic Communication Skills and Tactical Approaches to Consider	Suicide Intervention: From Risk to Resilience	Vicarious Trauma for Crisis Responders